NEWSLETTER: 24TH JULY 2023

NEW ROTARY YEAR 2023- 2024

The new board members above have started the new Rotary year with a lot of enthusiasm. Our new President Graham Rose is very keen to lead the club to another successful year. The lower photo is at The Champagne House in Pokolbin, with one of our past exchange students Anne Burnett from Canada in the pink shirt with her friend and past host parents.

BROKE PUBLIC SCHOOL EVENT

Vicki and Penny spent the morning at Broke Public School covering their new delivery of library books.

It was a beautiful sunny day and all 29 students were sitting outside in the sunshine, when we left, they were painting rocks in preparation to celebrate NAIDOC week. Supporting the children in our community is Penny's favourite, of all the various volunteering activities.

JULY IS NEW LEADERSHIP MONTH

True leaders don't create followers, they create new leaders.

One of our new Sponsors is Hulin Chadwick Lawyers. Our own member Peter Moore has just started working for this firm recently and has convinced this firm to become a sponsor. As with all our sponsors we would like to encourage members to use the services of our sponsors if possible. The Rotary Club of Cessnock has a number of sponsors now and it is thanks to Graham Farish who has started this initiative and continues to source new sponsors.

The Feed the Needy free lunch every Wednesday at the Uniting Church Hall has become very popular and we have members and Friends of Rotary helping out. We were also in attendance at the Uniting Church Hall when so many stalls were displayed for Seniors Week

Care is to 'express' not to 'impress' people..
When care is 'expressed' truly,
people will get 'impressed'
naturally.
